

10 (TP) Three Places Forms (Pt. 2)

beginning of sentence	10.1	w	Loudly , Beth spoke over the megaphone.
	10.2	pp	On my way home , I got hit by a drunk driver. After printing out my report , I went and handed it in.
	10.3	vp	Waiting for the bus , I listened to a motivational tape.
	10.4	ns	absolute	Heart pounding , he knocked on her front door.
			normal	Hand in hand , they walked down the street.
	10.5	as	Moments later , I heard the good news.
	10.6	as	Weary and worn-out , the traveler sought shelter for the night.
10.7	c	While she babysat , she did her homework.
middle of sentence	10.8	w	I regret to say, however , that I will be going away soon.
	10.9	pp	The artifact, of as-yet unknown origin , was the highlight of the dig.
	10.10	vp	The girl scouts, preparing for their trip , talked excitedly.
	10.11	ns	absolute	She walked home slowly, grocery bags drooping from each arm like elevator counterweights , thinking of what to cook.
			normal	She stood there, a small smile on her tear-stained face , as she watched her daughter wave from the bus window.
			appositive	Rita Coolidge, a singer with Cherokee roots , was popular in the early '70s, and still gives concerts.
	10.12	as	The police car, like a cheetah running after its prey , was chasing down the speeding truck.
	10.13	as	The boss, resolute and firm , told the workers that they would have to improve and increase production or else face layoffs.
10.14	c	Ron, as soon as he gets home , always prepares dinner for his wife.
10.15	AI	Some things, as I am sure you know , are better left unsaid.
end of sentence	10.16	w	The boat refugee lay on the deck, unconscious .
	10.17	pp	They departed in the night, with only a few possessions .
	10.18	vp	She went to the store, wearing only slippers on her feet .
	10.19	ns	absolute	She walked home slowly, grocery bags drooping from each arm like elevator counterweights .
			normal	She stood there, her arms akimbo , as she watched her daughter wave from the bus window.
			appositive	Rita Coolidge is of Cherokee background, a rich heritage of music, art, legends, dance, and thrift .
	10.20	as	I should finish it, probably by Thursday evening .
	10.21	as	Maggie shrugged, indifferent to Tom's outburst .
	10.22	c	I like to go shopping, when the need arises .
10.23	AI	Its overhaul is long overdue, officials said.			